I have all the bench notes, and hopefully the officers were able to grab the drugs, thank you! I will keep you posted.

Hi Katie,

I can be on call, however, I have no access to any of the data. The evidence office is closed today and tomorrow for inventory before the transfer to the state police. I would not be able to access any of the information for this lab# while this is going on. I am also on vacation next week. Hopefully this will get continued!

Thanks,

Dear Kate:

I am so sorry that this is such late notice, but attached please find a summons to appear today to give testimony in the [REDACTED] case. Defense counsel told me that she planned on continuing the case so I never sent you a summons, but I checked the list this morning and it appears that she did not change the date. I completely understand if today will not work for you, and obviously I intend on putting you on call, however I figured I would make one last ditch effort in order to see if you are in fact available. If you could please let me know by email as soon as you get this, that would be great. Again I appreciate that this is very last minute, and how busy you guys are right now. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best, Katie
